

Claw back was mainly due to recruitment issues. The majority of Powys contracts are with a Corporate who are currently experiencing recruitment issues which resulted in the clawback.

Powys in an attempt to solve the problem of access has decided to invest in some salaried general dental practitioner posts to complement the general dental service. It has also invested in creating a foundation post to further attract dentists into the area.